3.00 Hr Bus – Gaurav Bharadwaj

Started running in 2013 to burn the fats that I gained after quitting my Football Team during college days. Participated in timed runs from 2014 and got addicted to Running Half Marathons, 10ks n other distances. Also, I love clicking the moments when we run so I am also known as a Running Clicker 😊 So far I have completed 2 timed Marathons, 12 timed Half Marathons and several timed and non timed 10ks.

I enjoy running and always aim to finish strong to stay fit and healthy. I don't run to better my timings (thats an automatic side effect if u train & run well) but those who targets time, I'm ready to pace them and have officially paced 1x10k and 1xHM.

Ready to pace again for 3hrs HM bus on 12th March, 2017 🖐
